*I feel so helpless,
like a boat against the tide*

I wish the summer winds could bring back Paradise

*But I know,
if the world turned upside down*

*Baby, I know
you'd always be around*

The best of times are when I'm alone with you

Some rain, some shine

We'll make this a world for two

Our memories of yesterday will last a lifetime

*We'll take the best,
forget the rest*

And someday we'll find these are the best of times . . .

Dedication

For his years of service and commitment to the students of Woburn High School, the Senior Class is proud to dedicate the 1983 edition of the INNITOU to:

O'CONNOR

Graduates of the Class of 1983 -

Your years in the Woburn schools are complete. The diplomas are ready. With joy, pride, and a sense of fear of the unknown, we realistically share in your happiness.

Joy and pride are obvious emotions for your parents, grandparents, relatives, friends, staff members and for all graduates.

This joy and pride is shared by all of us as you, The Class of '83 enter a world of technology, computers, economic trends and social pressures more complex than prior graduates ever faced.

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt said on April 23, 1942, "We all know that books burn - yet we have the greater knowledge that books cannot be killed by fire." "People die," said President Roosevelt, "but books never die." He continued stating, "No man or no force can abolish memory."

Our hope, simply and briefly, is that you always use wisely the memory, skills and attitudes developed through your education in Woburn.

Finally, we hope you will gain great strength from your many happy memories and remember this spirit of '83 you all share can last forever.

Sincerely,

Paul J. Andrews
Superintendent of Schools

Director of Chapter I

The class of 1983 has distinguished themselves as a concerned, responsible, and enthusiastic student body. As you now leave Woburn High School, I counsel each of you to reflect on those accomplishments which contributed to your past successes. Individually you must face the challenges of a complex world, and everyone of you must be mindful of the purpose for which you spent these past three years. Those individuals with the abilities to think rationally and logically, who can make critical judgments, and who can utilize past knowledge and experiences, will be the active and effective participants in today's society and the society of the future. To each and everyone of you my heartiest congratulations and sincere best wishes.

TODAY

We never see this day again,
The seconds nor the hours,
Now's the time, to take the time to stop and smell the flowers.

Today's the day to give that smile
and some happiness away,
that you were saving for a friend
some rainy gloomy day.

This day is golden, priceless
God made this day for you,
the deed you do for someone else,
may just come back to you.

So touch a heart hold a hand;
call that lonely friend;
Don't postpone the love you have,
this day won't come again.

This years' football team will be best remembered for two things — their record and 1/10 of a point. The team once again shared the Middlesex League title with a record of nine wins and one loss. All Scholastics Keith McLaughlin and Gerard Coughlan, Oscar Lennon's record tying 22 touchdown passes, and Mike Mistretta's 1,031 yards rushing, led the team to a nearly perfect season; with help from outstanding performers "Shark" Marcantonio, Brian Hogan, Brian McDonald, Tom Giacchetto, Scott Tully, Tom Kirk, and Bob White. Other seniors contributing to the success included: Tom Johnson, Jim Mooney, Bill Claflin, Rich Amirault, Bill Foley, Matt Doherty, Tom Hurley, Mike Donohoe, and Tom Durlin. Even with the victory over arch rival Winchester on Thanksgiving Day, the team missed going to the Superbowl by a mere 1/10 of a point.

SENIORES

To the Class of 1983:

As an educator, one of the most satisfying aspects of working with and being involved in the education of young people is the opportunity to bear witness to their growth and maturity over a period of years. The Class of 1983 is an excellent example of this phenomenon. The maturation, growth and sophistication of the Class both as individuals and as a Class has been remarkable.

Your achievements and success in the areas of academics, athletics and extra-curricular activities give strong testimony to support that growth.

I congratulate you on your accomplishments. It is my hope that you will enjoy success in whatever endeavors you undertake in the years to come and that the future brings you health and happiness.
